

TOP TRAINEE: Keelham Farm Shop's Kyle Mottram celebrates winning the Apprentice of the Year certificate, supported by his mentors and fellow butchers, from left, Tony Williams, Steve Pemberton, Ray Cramp and Mick Leach, Kneeling is butchers shop manager Lee Scott.

Trainee butcher is recognised

YOU'RE hired! Keelham Farm Shop in Bradford, has chosen its own star apprentice.

Trainee butcher Kyle Mottram has been chosen as Meat Technology Apprentice of the Year in the annual awards run by Leeds City College.

His success is a major achievement, as Kyle, 20, is the first Keelham butcher to take part in the Thornton shop's newly introduced apprenticeship scheme.

He joined the business three years ago and is currently undertaking a Level 2 NVQ Meat Technology course at the college.

Local, regional and national awards keep on rolling in at Keelham Farm Shop. The highlight was when the business was chosen as Non-Multiple Retailer of the Year in the 2010 Food and Farming Industry Awards.